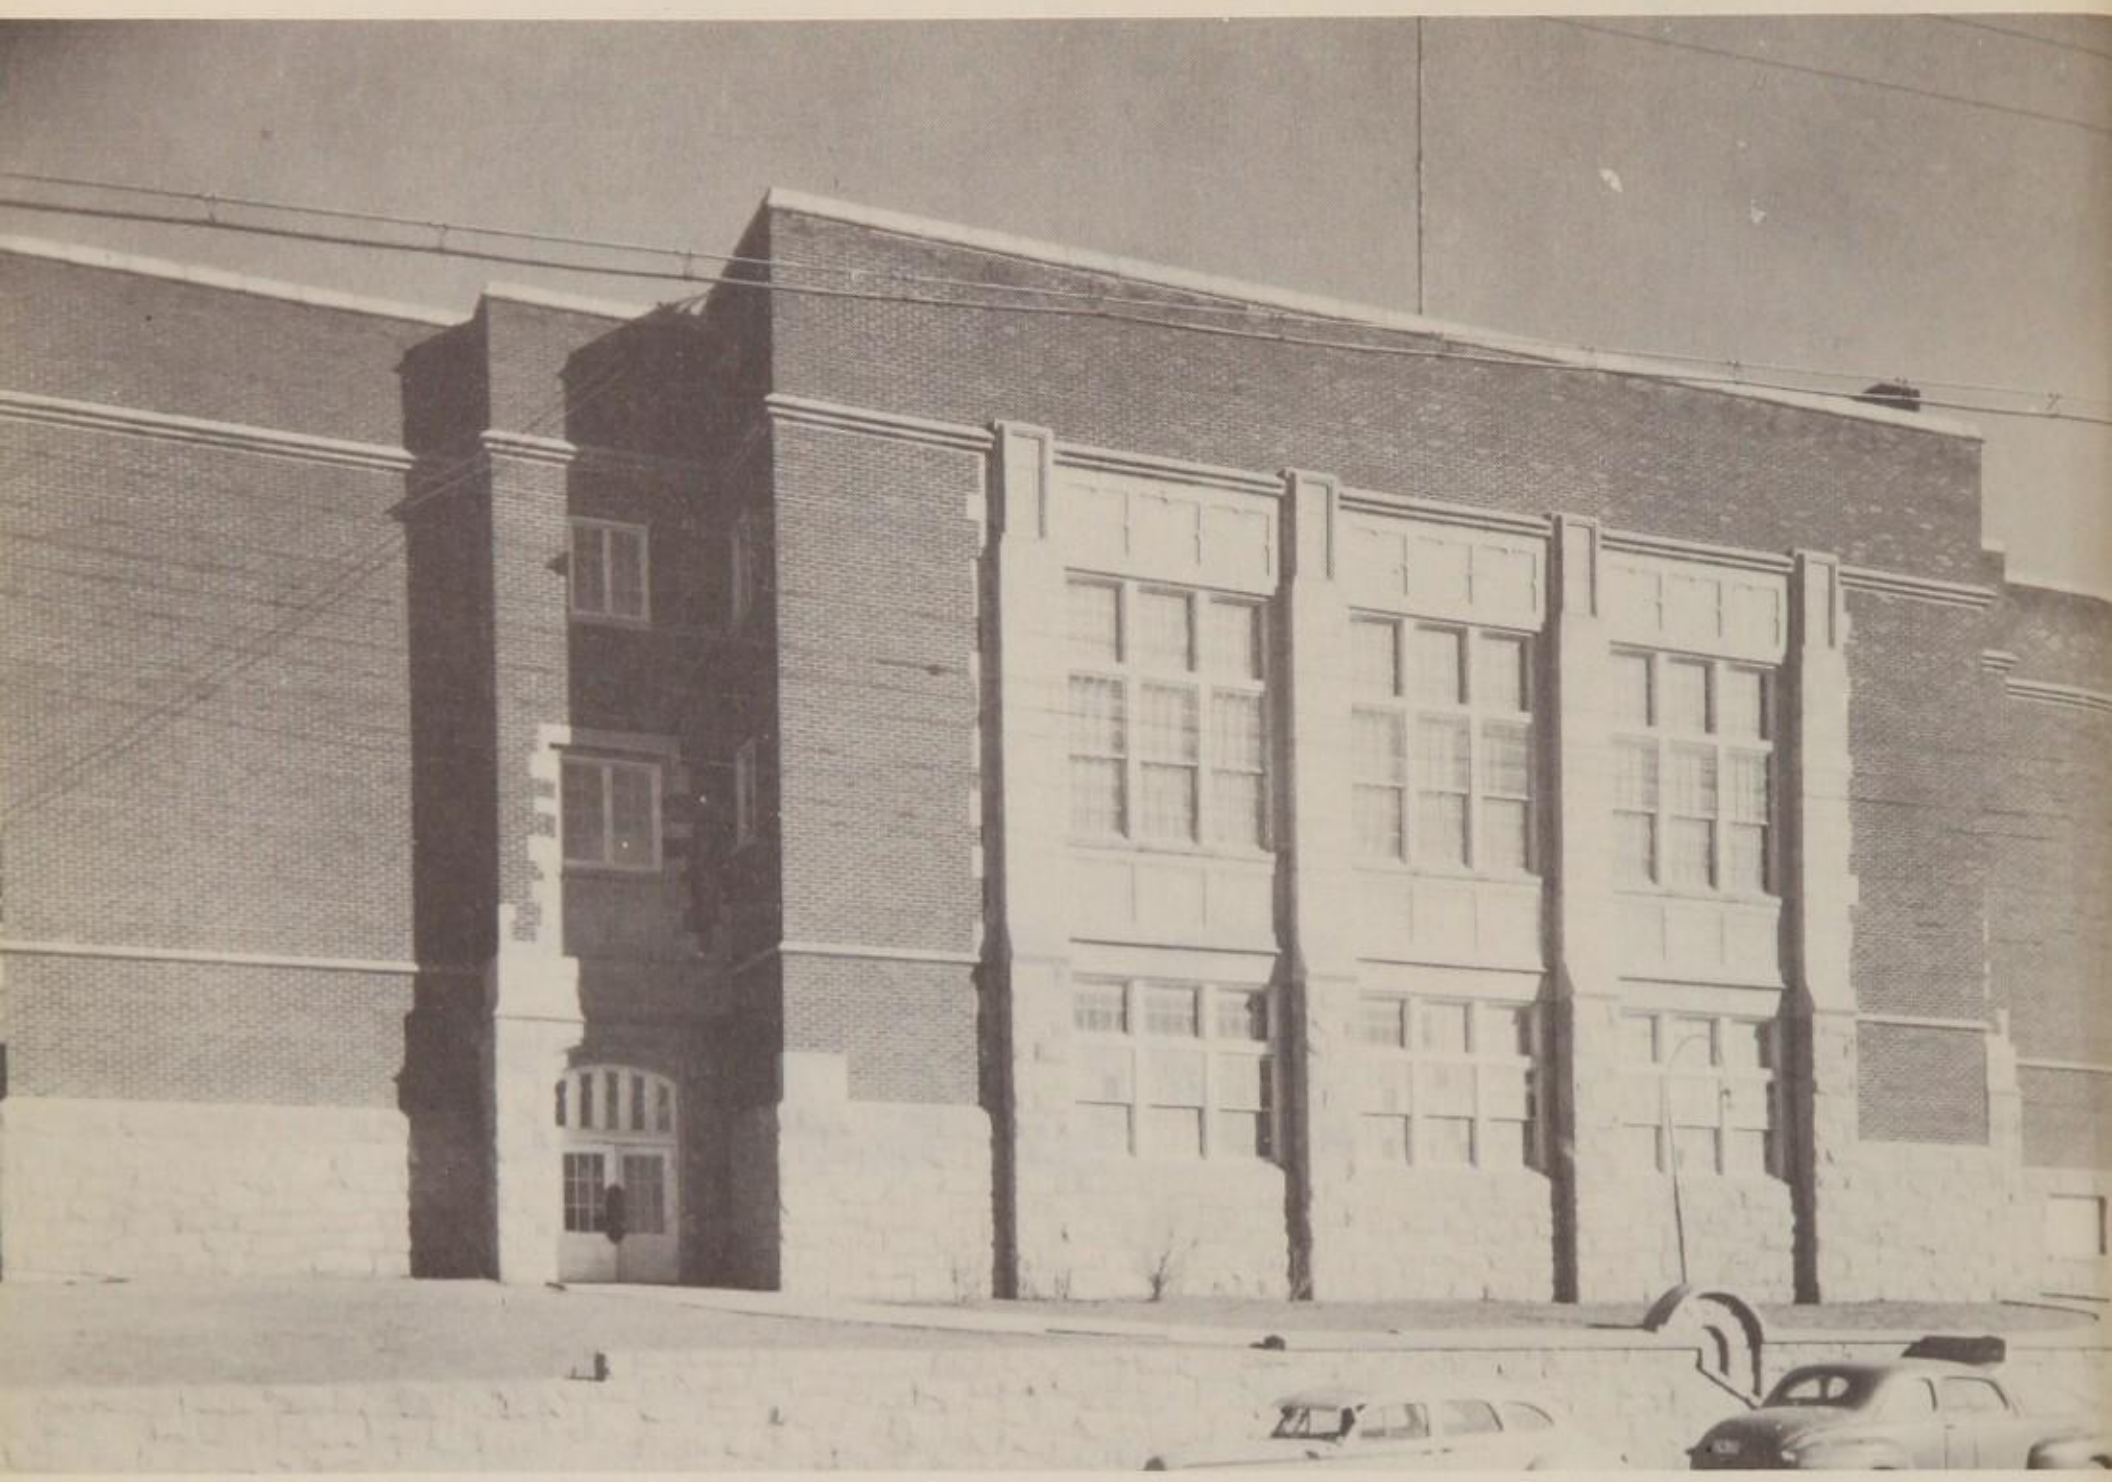
NEWCASTLE HIGH SCHOOL

THE NEWCASTLE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING



Erected 1921-22 Opened March, 1922

The 1928 Dogie estimates the value of the building at that time to be $105,000. The present estimated value is $225,000.

In the four year period including 1925 and 1928, Newcastle High School graduated a total of 91 pupils. In the four year period ending with 1951, 151 pupils were graduated from the building. The enrollment in 1925 was 109, while in 1951 it is 236.

Altogether, about 810 have graduated from the present building.

Upon doing further research, we found that of this year's graduating class, at least three students had parents who graduated from the building. They were Lorene Pzinski (Mabel Elliott '27), Dudley Wiltse (Hazel Miller '29), and Roderick Snyder (Seymour Snyder '28).

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1951, being of sound mind and body, leave to you, the students of N.H.S.:

Tommy Borgialli leaves his cowboy boots to Ace Rogen. George Warner leaves his flirting ways to Rex McCoy. Dorline Wright leaves her wonderful gift of gab to Joan Mitchell. Betty Jo Willis leaves her present engagement for a more important one. Bonnie Marquiss leaves her golden locks to Peggy Hereford. Dean Cornelison leaves his quiet ways to Bobby Anderson. Kenneth Gaskill leaves his sportsmanship to Allen Joslyn. Fern Craig leaves her charming ways to Viola Fegert.

Sophie Mirich leaves her long black hair to Caroline Eatherton—now don't cut it! Beverly Egge leaves her chemistry book to Richard Taylor. David Riesland leaves his brains to any poor freshie who can carry them. Dudley Wiltse leaves his red cords to Tommy Spencer—they need some altering first!! Irene Walker leaves "Goodnight Irene" to David Fitzgerald—you'll have to find a new tune! Jerry Ditto left for Rapid City—he'll move back this spring. Charlene Tewell leaves her French horn at the music room—for sale! Martha Howell left her gum in her flute for anyone who wants to use it.

Lois Engle leaves her class dues for Doris Fawcett to pay. Allen Eckley leaves his diploma at the high school. Gerald Davis leaves his bubble gum for Miss Kinder— for you know what! Betty Eatherton (Curley) leaves her curly locks to Melvin Wildey. Roderick Snyder leaves his shot gun to Charles Lawson. Helen Hansen leaves her wardrobe to Margy Biggs. Myron Mason leaves his "literature" to Fred Giffin. Walter May leaves his prize heiffer to Charles Scott. Larry Taylor leaves his "uppers" to Jean Sewell. Willis Willadson leaves to carry on American Government in Washington, D. C.

Joan Borgialli leaves her short hand notes to anyone who can read them. Roy Willadson leaves his "car" to Glenn Clyde—fix the starter! Patricia Trosello leaves her typewriter to Betty McLealand. Lois Ann Joslyn leaves several boy friends to Janet Schulze. Helen Dixon leaves the "Borgialli" car for June Schwarze. Francis Tanner leaves his work book to Mr. Walker. Louise Bond leaves for new horizons. Dick Minor leaves his curly hair to Claire Sorheim. Walter Pzinski already left. Joan Thompson leaves her ability to write to Jerold Baird.

Sammy Sewell leaves his title "most handsome" to some Junior boy. Jean Brown leaves her dashing "red" hair to Jerry Gardner. Jack Case leaves his absent slips for Leonard Thompson to make up. Lorene Pzinski leaves her art of sewing to Barbara Olmstead. Dick Blakely leaves his Public Speaking Books to Mr. Crouch. Arlene Gustafson leaves her speech to Virginia Willadson. Richard Morris leaves his seat in Agriculture for some little farmer.

now achieved fame, she is the first woman ever to win the "Pool Championship." Pat tells me she has a surprise for me, and that the floor show is about ready to start, with Dorlene Wright as star performer. Dorlene comes out and it really is a happy surprise. She leads us as she used to do with a yell for the "Dogies".

I notice that Myron Mason, now chief auctioneer for Lucky Strike has Dean Corneilson cornered and is trying his sales talk on him but Dean seems unimpressed, his favorite brand is still "Cools". Charlene Tewell is here too, she is on an advertising campaign for Dewey. She is now his publicity agent and is still trying to get him elected. It is getting late and I am tired from my long trip so I bid my friends good night and start for my hotel. As I start down the street I see a tall Army Air Force Captain striding toward me, and I straighten up and am just ready to salute when I recognize him. Yes, it's no other than my old classmate Roderick Snyder, and I wouldn't salute him if he were a general. He tells me that he is still up to his old tricks, shooting bee bee guns (at Russians) and pulling light switches (in his favorite girl's parlor).

As I reach my hotel who would be there to welcome me but Sophie Mirich, president of Newcastle Clubs Consimbined. Of course Sophie tells me all the local gossip. It seems that Lorene Pzenski is now head supervisor of all 4-H Clubs and Jack Case is sueing his wife for divorce on grounds of non-support. Jeannie Brown, famous journalist, writes her daily column, "Jeannie Love Tips" in Eathertons weekly. She has one choice bit of scandal—it seems that a complaint was issued to Governor Sammy Sewell, that Newcastle was using more than its share of Atomic Rocket Power, and that it was endangering the war effort. Of course he contacted famous secret detective George Warner to find the cause of the undue waste. After months of research he found enough evidence, all of which pointed toward Jerry Ditto. Jerry Ditto protested, he said that he only went to the moon every night and that that trip was REALLY necessary. His reason being that Sharon was there. George relayed Jerry's defense to Sammy who upon hearing it ruled it entirely necessary and allowed him twice as much atomic power, for you see he understands because he spends all his time, in between visits to Fern's Beauty Salon, making mud pies so that he can hurry back and get another manicure.

She also tells me that Lois Engle is now happily married. Lois's castles finally took on real live form. Willis Willadson now a famous chemist is working on a special formula for his brother Roy's enjoyment, "The endless book". We mustn't forget Lois Ann Joslyn, she has moved down to Larmie now as Mrs. Billy Boulden and poor Billy is still struggling to get through college. Dick Blakley has also achieved fame. He was awarded a super duper TAYLOR window washer, really a piece of sheep wool, for being the fastest and best windshield cleaner, and I also hear that Arlene Gustafason is still trying to satisfy her childhood ambition. "She's just a rolling stone." As we are standing here talking who should come in but Louise Boint (Bond) who is also happily married, it seems that she was really in love even though she never did have the urge to write poetry. Wonder what Mr. Walker would say now? Sophie also informs me that Joan Borgialli, after many months of hard labor mastered her shorthand and has now taken Miss Kinder's place as commercial teacher. I have one last thing to do before I go to bed, that is make a phone call. "Number Please," I would recognize that voice anywhere. It is no other than Beverley Egge who has worked herself up to chief operator, but that is just a side line you see. She is a famous mathematician and is here working for the government. She is making a survey of whether girls call boys most or boys call girls. In other words who is chasing who.

I forgot completely what I started to call about but that can wait till morning, and as I doze off I think of all the old acquaintances I have renewed today. Yes, each and everyone of my class mates has been just as successful or more than I.

CLASS PROPHECY

It is now the year of 1961 and I am on my way back to my old home town. I have finally reached my goal. Yes, I am now 2nd. Lieutenant Joan Thomson, N.C., and home on my first leave.

As the train pulls into the depot I can see even from here that Newcastle has grown and is prospering. You would never know it for the same town I went to school in.

"Taxie lady?" why it is none other than Walter May, what a relief to see a familiar face. Walter tells me that he is now running a taxie service of which he is president, manager and driver. As he drives me through town I notice an immense line of men all moving toward the doctor's office. I ask Walter who was killed, but he says that Dudley Wiltse who is now the local doctor just employed Bonnie Marquiss as his special nurse last week and that it has been going on like this ever since, with Jerry heading the line each day. "Now I Understand." There is our friend Kenny Gaskill. Walter squeels to a stop and takes one more aboard. Kenny seems to have prospered too, he tells me that he just signed a contract with the Denver Chevrolet basketball league, and that he was awarded $1,000 and a trip to Paris by Mr. Walker now manager of the radio program "It pays to be Ignorant." Kenny informs me that he is on his way out to the Rodeo and as I have nothing to do I guess I'll tag along.

Just as we enter, chute No. 4 opens on the all famous rodeo star, Gerald Davis riding the slithering killer, Gun Powder. Kenny tells me that if Gerald wins the purse today he intends to donate it to the Alcohol Anonymous Society so that they can gain prohibition. There's really a crowd at the rodeo, and there is Betty Jo Hokanson (Willis), coming in now, with little Betty Jo's and Bill's hanging onto her skirt tail. She merely waves to us. She seems to be preoccupied and who wouldn't be with thirteen children. Golly these people sure wear big hats. I can't see the rodeo for the cowboy hat in front of me, but that hat seems familiar, why it's no other than Oil Baron Richard Morris, but he is too interested in the rodeo to pay any attention to us. Yes, he's watching all star calf roper, Walter Pzinski, break the Newcastle record, he downed him in three hours flat. Francis Tanner is here too, but he tells me he is still waiting for Joanne to graduate. And of course the Borgialli brothers are here, they are now partners in the BDS (Borgialli, Dixon, Swartz) cattle ranch, the largest this side of Beaver creek, but I hear that Martha Howell is giving them some strong competition.

Martha now owns a throughbred horse ranch and she has a horse in the race today. It's rumored that she has bet everything except the horse she is running. "They're off," wait something's wrong. No. 11 is still at the starting post. "What no rider." After repeated questioning I find that Allen Eckley was to have been Martha's jockey but he just reached the fair grounds in time to see the last horse finish. Poor Martha, she now owns one horse. David Riesland, one of our honor students seems to have disappeared, it is rumored that he went to the North Pole. He must have found the Eskimo girls more attractive. The last event is over and as the crowd rushed toward the door I think of the halls of old Newcastle High. As we reach the gate who should be there waiting for us but our old faithful Walter May. He has the radio turned to the Irene Walker show, yes she has surpassed Bob Hope as comedian and story teller. The censors thought they had a job with Bob Hope, well now what?

It seems the favorite gathering place anymore is Patty's Pool Hall, named for its proprietress Pat Trosello, who decided she would never style another letter head and has made her first one do all these years. As we enter I see Pat hard at work, shooting pool with Dick Miner, all American champ pool player, and they really keep Helen Hansen busy racking the pool balls. She plays a good game and beats him. Pat has

The Future Homemakers of America is a national organization of girls that have taken or are taking Home Economics.

The Newcastle Chapter has 82 members, two of which have the honor of being state officers, and one of which holds a district office. The Newcastle Chapter was awarded a Superior rating at the annual state meeting at Laramie in March, 1950.

Two nation-wide projects which were observed were a "Families Together" night and the "World Christmas Festival". Norway was chosen as the school to receive a Christmas package for the year 1950 from the Newcastle Chapter. A FHA Christmas party was held with Norway the theme for refreshments and dress.

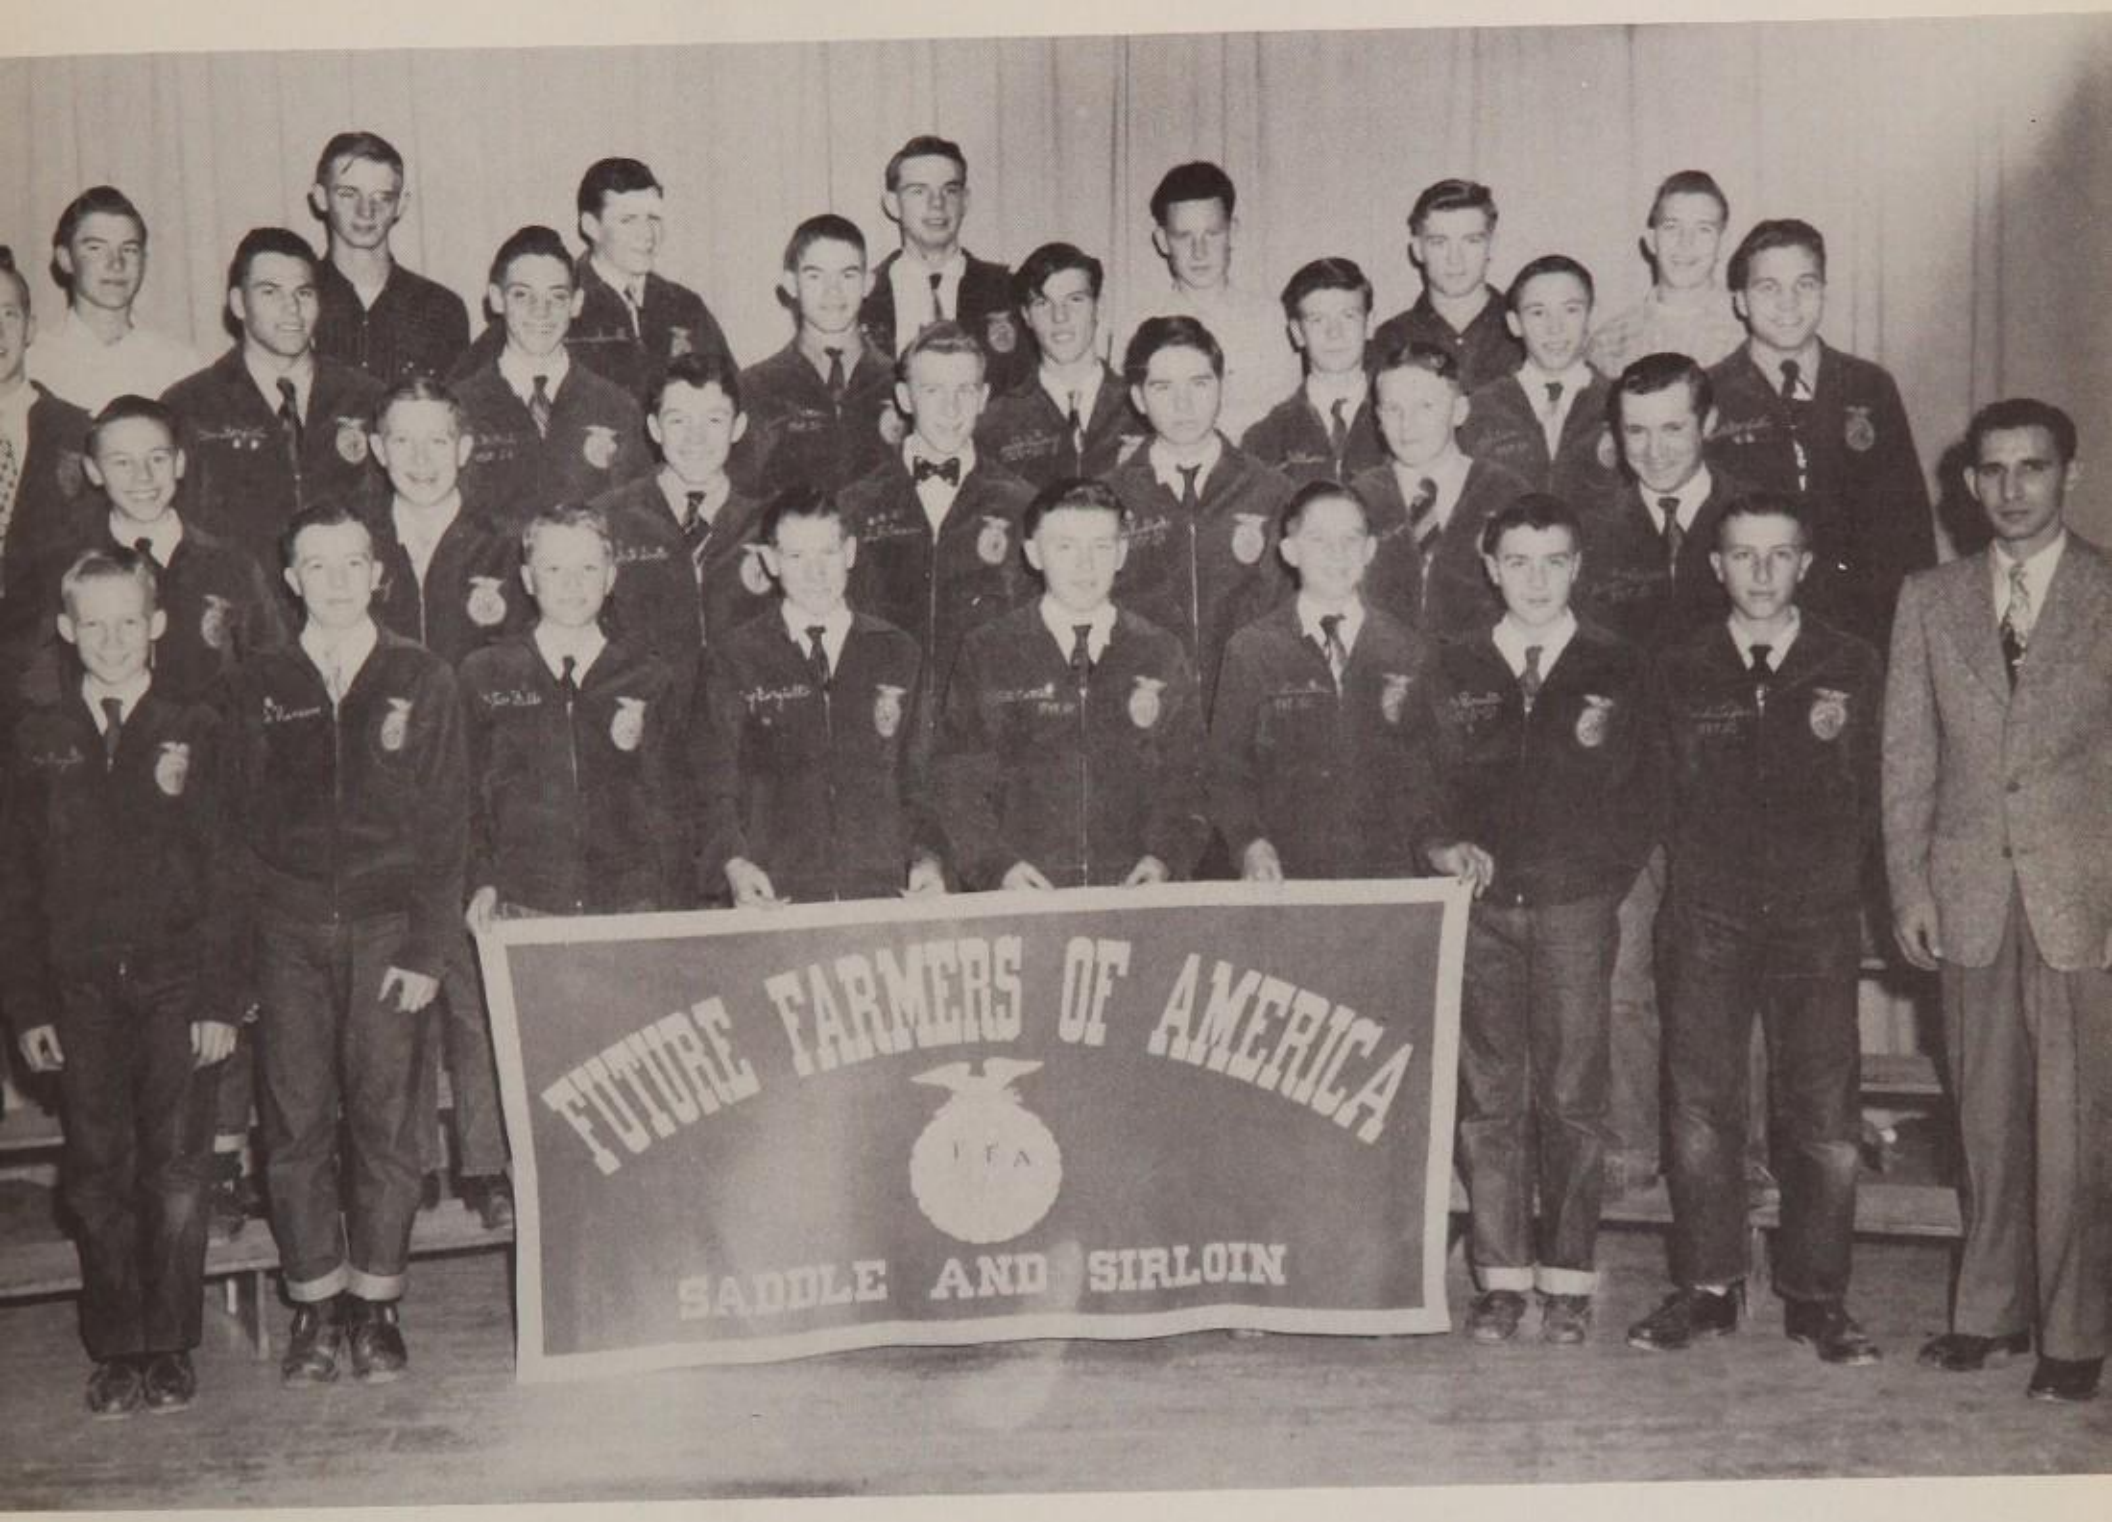
FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA



"FUTURE FARMERS of AMERICA"

The Future Farmers of America or "F.F.A." as it is commonly known, is the national organization of, by, and for boys studying vocational agriculture in high schools.

The motto of the "F.F.A." consists of only four lines, but these lines are filled with practical philosophy, reflecting a spirit and sincerity of the farm youth of America.

The Motto:

Learning to do
Doing to learn
Earning to live
Living to serve

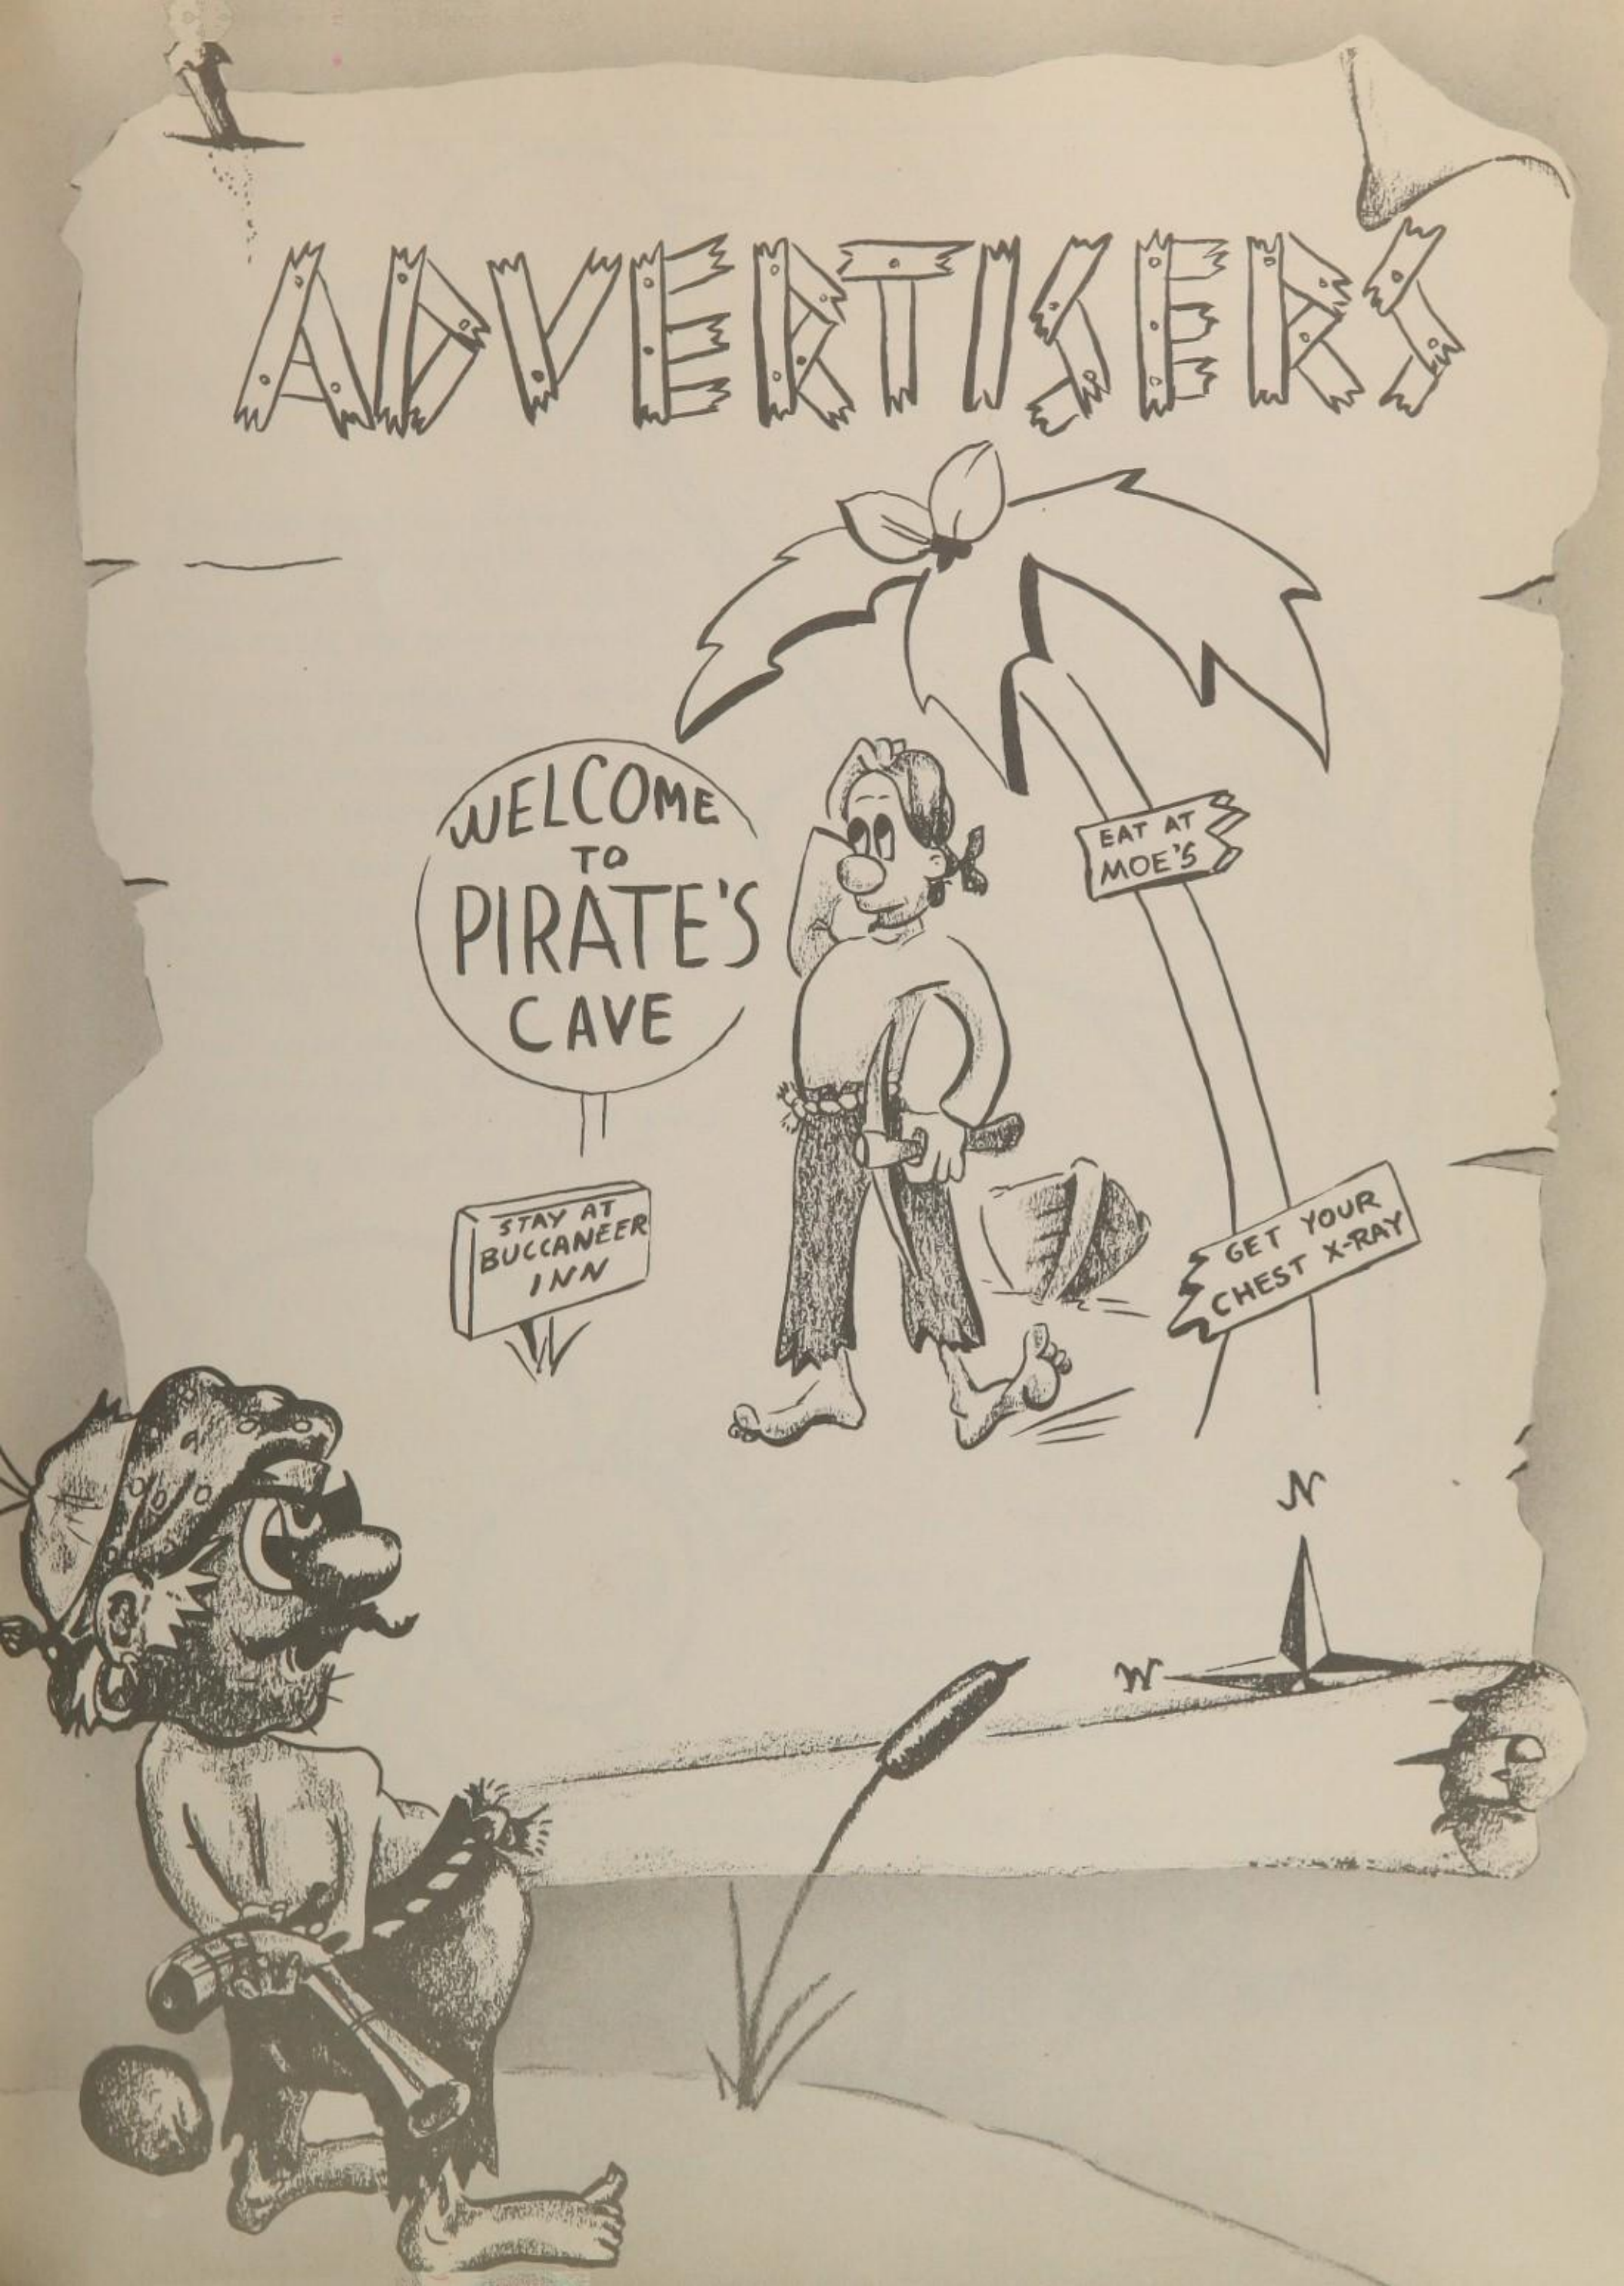
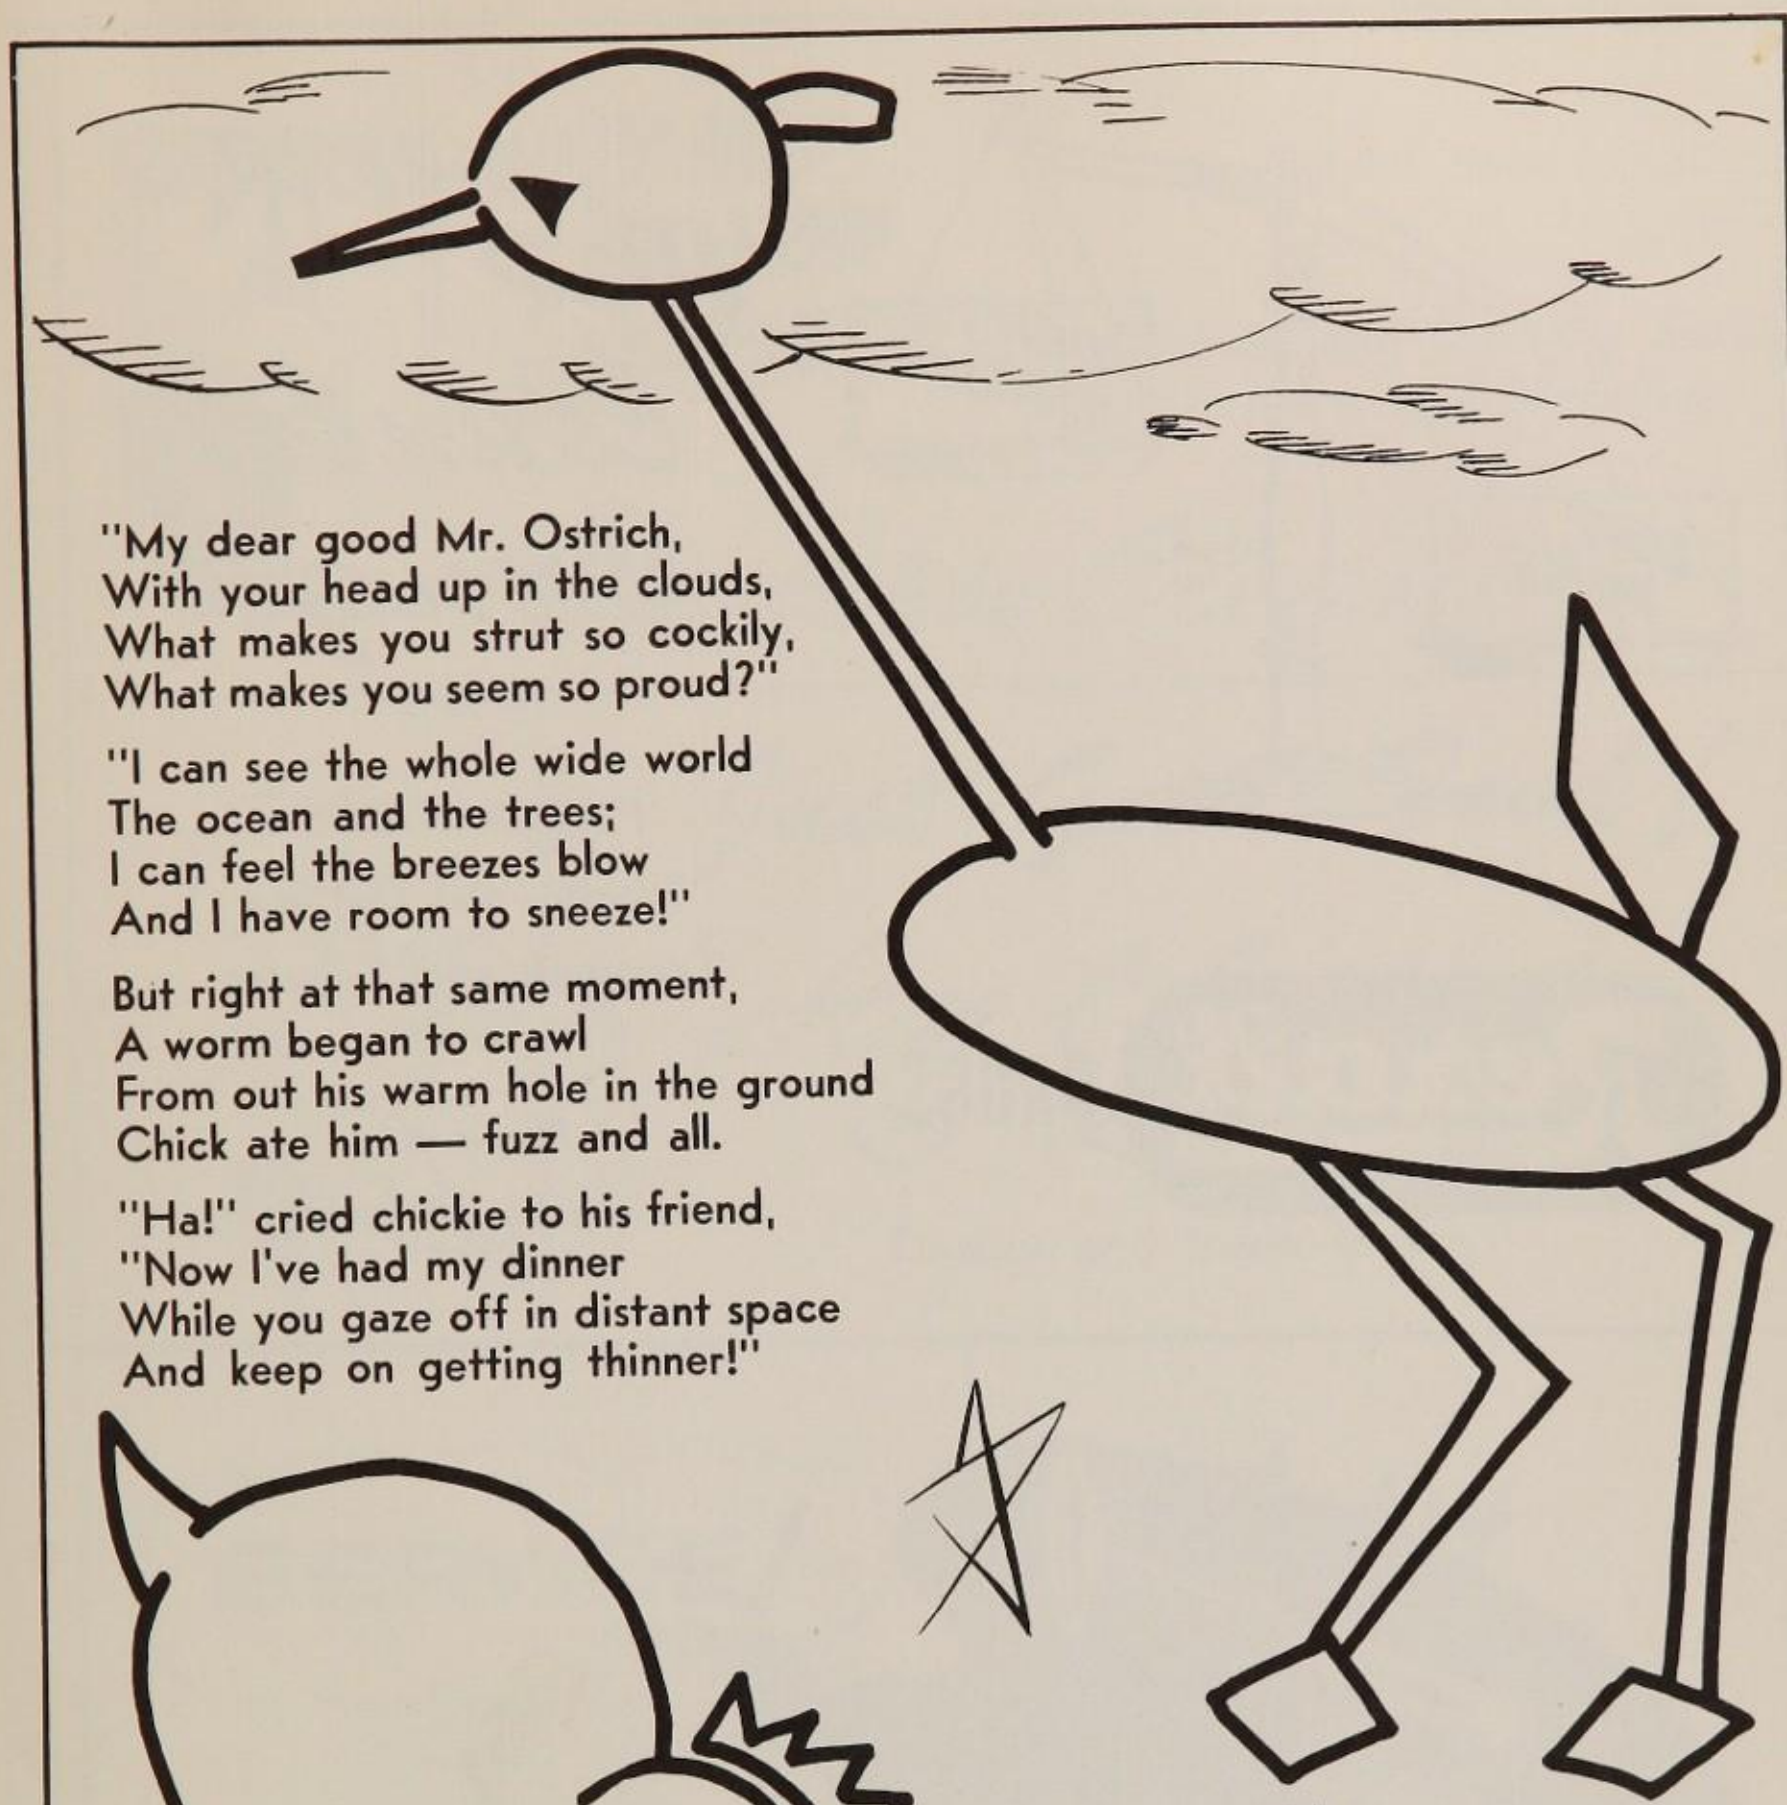
ADVERTISERS



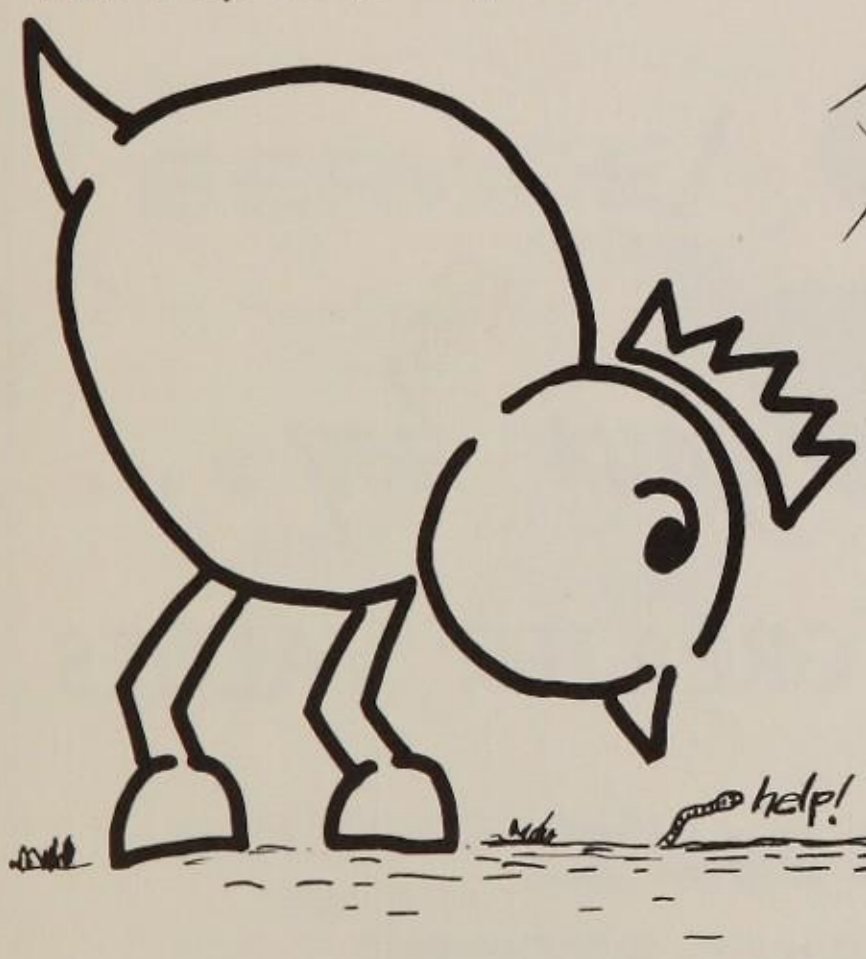


"My dear good Mr. Ostrich,
With your head up in the clouds,
What makes you strut so cockily,
What makes you seem so proud?"

"I can see the whole wide world
The ocean and the trees;
I can feel the breezes blow
And I have room to sneeze!"

But right at that same moment,
A worm began to crawl
From out his warm hole in the ground
Chick ate him — fuzz and all.

"Ha!" cried chickie to his friend,
"Now I've had my dinner
While you gaze off in distant space
And keep on getting thinner!"



MORAL

Dreams are youth's inescapable lure,
Visions sublime tempt to places a-far;
Dream—but don't let dreams be your master
Lest you stub your toe on a star!
